

United Through Reading® Circle of Communication

1

The service member reads a book while being recorded and sends the DVD home to the child.

2

The child at home watches the DVD and follows along with the book, if available.

4

The service member's morale is boosted by the feedback, and he or she is encouraged to read again.

3

The parent at home captures the child's reaction to the DVD in a photo or email and sends back to the service member.

